

Special Session

Blockchain Applications in Smart Systems

for

IEEE UEMCON 2019 - The 10th IEEE Annual Ubiquitous Computing, Electronics & Mobile Communication Conference

10-12 October, 2019 – Columbia University, New York, USA

Blockchain has emerged as the solution for the security issues in smart systems due to its intrinsic characteristics such as distributed data storage and immutability. It is believed that Blockchain will lead to the establishment of a new generation of smart systems.

This special track will provide a forum for researchers and industrialists to share recent research results on Blockchain applications in smart systems including overviews, proof-of-concepts case studies, and real life applications.

Topics include, but not limited to:

- Blockchain and food systems
- Blockchain and farming and agriculture
- Blockchain and smart homes
- Blockchain and smart buildings
- Blockchain and smart cities
- Blockchain and smart campuses
- Blockchain and healthcare
- Blockchain and transportation systems
- Blockchain and power grids
- Blockchain in oil and gas industry
- Blockchain and banking
- Blockchain and education
- Blockchain and entertainment
- Other Blockchain applications

Paper Categories

Regular Paper – 7 pages maximum (3 additional pages allowed but at an extra charge)

Short Paper (Work-in-Progress) – 6 pages maximum (2 additional pages allowed but at an extra charge)

Poster – 5 pages maximum

Regular papers should present novel perspectives within the general scope of the conference. Short papers (Work-in-Progress) are an opportunity to present preliminary or interim results. Posters are intended for ongoing research projects, concrete realizations, or industrial applications/projects presentations.

Paper Submission Info:

IEEE UEMCON uses EDAS for submission.

Authors need to:

1. Create an account (if not already registered) with EDAS at <http://edas.info>
2. Submission link: <https://edas.info/newPaper.php?c=25891&track=97874>

Important Dates

Full Paper Submission:	30 th June 2019
Acceptance Notification:	24 th July 2019
Final Paper Submission:	2 th September 2019
Conference:	10 th - 12 th October 2019
